BE A LEADER IN MENTAL HEALTH.

Mental health officers in the U.S. Public Health Service Commissioned Corps are part of an elite team bringing mental and behavioral health services to people most in need. Under a new partnership with the U.S. Department of Defense, Commissioned Corps officers may be detailed to military medical treatment facilities. These officers will provide psychiatric services, counseling, and family and group therapy to returning war fighters, their family members, and military retirees. Corps officers are rewarded with an excellent package of salary and benefits, including health coverage, tax-free allowances for housing and food, 30 days of vacation each year, and much more.
